CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 5s., and so on in proportion.
- III. All Lots are put up for sale subject (a) to any reserve price imposed by the Seller and (b) to the right of the Seller either to bid personally or else by any person who may be the Auctioneer.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and if required, to pay down 10s. in the pound or more, in part payment of the purchase money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased may be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. All lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections, and errors of description. Messrs. Sotheby & Co. act as agents; they have full discretion to refuse any bidding or to withdraw any lot or lots from the sale without in either case giving any reason; they are not responsible for errors of description or for genuineness or authenticity of any lot or for any default or defect in it, and make no warranty whatever.
- VI. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's risk and expense immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. Sotheby & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if the same are lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to a charge for warehousing. If, at the expiration of Two Days after the conclusion of the sale, the lots are not cleared or paid for, they may then be sold immediately, either publicly or by private treaty, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VII. Upon failure of the buyer to comply with any of the above conditions, the money deposited in part-payment shall be forfeited; and the defaulter at this sale shall make good any loss arising from the re-sale, together with the charges and expenses in respect of both sales.

To prevent confusion no purchases can be claimed or removed during the sale.

Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co. are prepared to execute bids, and in addition to advise intending purchasers as far as possible, if requested by them to do so, without making any charge for either service. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

The Property of the late Frederick Arthur Crisp.

[SOLD BY ORDER OF THE EXECUTORS OF HIS WIDOW,
THE LATE MRS. GERTRUDE CRISP.]

- 106 A ROMANO-BRITISH GOLD "CROSS-BOW" BROOCH, the bow of triangular section, the bar hexagonal and terminating in pointed bosses of the same type as the bow, and decorated with milled collar, a double-milled collar at the junction of the stem and bar, and two cruciform ornaments spaced on the top resembling the St. Paul's Lincoln Brooch, $3\frac{1}{4}$ in., wt. 2 ozs. 16 dwts., Temp. Constantine, circa A.D. 350

£105 Permain [Pl. IV.]

 The previous history of this brooch is not known. It closely resembles the 4th Century gold "Cross-Bow" Brooch in the British Museum, found at Odiham, Hants. (See Archaeological Journal II, 46.)

The Property of Colonel C. C. Hewitt.

- 107 A FINE GOLD FILLET OR COLLAR, of unusual type, circa 800 A.D.; this band is composed of a skein of five gold plaits, with an open loop at the ends for fastening the object. It measures $20\frac{1}{2}$ in. long and nearly $\frac{1}{2}$ in. wide, and weighs 22 dwts. 4 grns.; found in the neighbourhood of Kanturk, Co. Cork, and illustrated and described in the Ulster Journal of Archaeology, vol. IX, p. 28.

[Pl. IV.]

- 108 A gold Pin, with spirally twisted shaft, and two loose rings at the head; and a bronze Pin, with flat discoidal head, both of the later Celtic period, and found in Ireland

2 [Pl. IV.]

Another Property.

- 109 A VERY RARE INCA SACRIFICIAL BOWL IN PALE GOLD (Electrum), of primitive conical gourd form, with slightly contracted mouth, decorated round the sides with three groups, each of five irregular circles of shield-like shape, divided by four somewhat larger single circles of the same type, the mouth rim with two plain lines, mouth-opening 7 in. diam., total diam. 9 in., height $4\frac{7}{8}$ in., Pacor-sinago region, Ecuador, circa 1500 B.C.; in glazed case

[Pl. V.]

 Some authorities state that the circular motif represents the all-seeing eye and thus relates especially to the Supreme Being. The Bowl was probably interred in a heavy coffin and protected from contact with corrosive action, which would account for its fine state of preservation. A document by J. F. Woodroffe, author of numerous works on the Amazon and Brazil, accompanies the lot.

The Property of Mrs. M. S. Madge, decd.
